PEACE

God's PEACE is His Son(s).

Celebrate God not worried.

---

*“PEACE I leave with you;
My PEACE I give to you;
not as the world gives,
do I give to you.
Let not your heart be troubled,
nor let it be fearful.”*

(John 14:37 NAS77 emphasis mine)

WHEN YOU SHRINK

God's PEACE gladdens all things behind door number three.

All PEACE worth seeking is nothing less than the Person of God in the form of Jesus the Christ. Yes, this is quite the statement, but it is the one that Jesus the Christ was willing to die for. Because of this, He entered a PEACE that cannot be uttered, but only expressed. So, when you are willing to take the journey to this PEACE, determine to travel light. Pack your bag with a willing soul and ditch everything but your eager heart ready to heed His call, and enter His PEACE.

Think of a child who, willfully, just did a 'no, no'. There is no PEACE until the judgement is over. It's like that with God. We have no PEACE until the rectification has been exacted. And it has. Jesus carried us all to our just judgement. He took us to a place from which there is no escape to the glorious freedom of His PEACE with His and our Father. What had to happen was the liberation of your soul from a person determined to do it his way, who has convinced you it is really you trying to do it your way. But in that liberation is also a bondage. Your liberation from eternally trying and failing to create your own PEACE costs your own supposed freedom to be what you want to be. In fact, it is that desire to gain your own PEACE that disquiets your soul.

Then, what is that way to peace?

Die, die, die.

How do I do that? But you did.

Start anew? You have.

Then try harder?

No, just remember, you're dead.

Then how do I gain PEACE?

Rest in Jesus, your PEACE.

Then what?

Do what He is doing.

You get to do what He is doing.
What is He doing?
The will of Father.
How do I know what He is doing?
He is loving everyone indiscriminately.
What good is that?
Perfection.
What do I get?
PEACE.
What does He get?
PEACE.

“These things I have spoken to you,
that in Me you may have PEACE.
In the world you have tribulation,
but take courage;
I have overcome the world.”

(John 16:33 NAS77 emphasis mine)
